WED IN OLD ST. PAUL'S THE WILLIAMS-ANDERSON NUP-TIALS CELEBRATED THERE, BRILLIANT SOCIAL

the Ceremony Followed by an Ele-Reception-Miss Curtis Be-Mr. Charlton's Bride-Peyton-Martin Nuptinis.

the tale of social events of this shall be told, there will surely be of few that can compare in brilliance note or perfection of detail with Anderson-Williams nuptials, which celebrated in historic old St. Paul's the social prominence of the contractvarties and their wide popularity o to create an intense interest in the full half hour before the appointed the galleries and side aisles were packed with guests, admission to arch being obtained by ticket only. entre aisle was reserved for the s and more intimate friends of Anderson and Mr. Williams.

scene was passing brilliant, had been most tastefully and prosecorated, and many splendid ere in evidence, being worn by Virginia's fairest daughters. IE FLORAL DECORATIONS.

A huge bank of was a design in the form of and taken to the home of n either side of the chancel

AL OF THE BRIDAL TRAIN. but a few minutes after th when the sarsh string covered to the sarsh of the bride o or of the north end of th First came the ushers, two by ollowe: Mr. John T. Anderson C. C. Mayo, Mr. W. O. Skeiton ohn Pickreil, Mr. H. L. Cabell nalds followed in similar were: Misses Marian Crafts, of Halifax county, Va., and rd, Ellen Hobson, and Mary

HE BRIDESMAIDS' DRESSES. as of the bridgem don-pleated creps de chine, don-pleated creps de chine, of each was a most sline de soie ses of the bridgemaids were of the same material were also handsone bouquet of bride's in a light green travelling suit, trimmed the effect created by these dainty with dark green velvet and changeable cher Anderson. Her suiting of white satin and white organdle, and carried a bouquet of maidenhair fernsome dress of white Miss Parrish's tasteful costume was white a chiffon yoke, She wore a organdie over green satin, and she, too, carried maidenhair fern.

The ushers were: Mr. William T. Martin, prother of the bride (lady's test man); Mr. William J. Keller, of Charlottesville (groom's best man), and Messre, T. M. William J. Welde W. J. Tigner Worthly, Dielde W. J. Tigner when the ceremony was over the bridar party, amid showers of congratulations and heartlest good wishes, entered carriages in waiting and were driven to the Union depot, where Mr. and Mrs. Peyton took the train for an extended trip through the build as delightfully played by Proinhardt, with violin obligato, Mr. John C. Reinhard. Tignor, Worthley Dickie, W. J. Tignor, J. Garland Pollard, R. C. Carden, and

W. P. Taliaferro.

Mr. John C. Reinhardt, he final benediction of the marchancel in the reverse order to gant.
which they had entered, to the strains of Wagner's superb march ong those present at the ceremony may son. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pace, and Miss Ross, Rev. and Mrs. Mrs. Carmichael, Colonel and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Meand Mrs. Ned Myers, Mr. and Carter, Colonel and Mrs. Buand Miss Tatum, Mr. and Mrs. Buand Mrs. B is and Miss Tatum, Mr. and Mrs. Illison, Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop, Mr. Barton Wiso, Major and Mrs. Randolph, Dr. and Mrs. J. White, it the Misses Camm, Mr. and Mrs. cott, Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherie and Mrs. Ned Crump, Mrs. Waller, Mrs. and Miss Hayes, Waller, Mrs. and Miss Hayes, ss Josiah Ryland, Mr. and and Miss Annie Clayton Bruce, of this od Miss Josiah Ryland, Mr. and unes Lyons; Mr. and Mrs. Frank of Norfolk; Miss Rebe Glasgow, Mrs. Ned Christian, Mr. and Mrs. oynes, Mrs. Joynes, Sr., Mr. James on, Miss Saille Anderson, Mr. J. Anderson, Mr. W. T. Archer, Dr. a. Crenshaw, Mr. and Mra. B. B. ac. Mr. Robert Archer, Mr. Anderstan, Dr. and Mra. X.cGuire. Guire, Miss Lassiter, of Peters and Mrs. C. Branch, Miss Allie Mr. S. S. P. Patteson, Mr. and T. Meloney, Mr. Richard Gaines and Mrs. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel, Dr. O. A. Crenshaw, Mr. Beverley Munford, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. T. Potts, Mr. Rose Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Logan Mrs. Moredith Montague, Mr. at Boykin, Mr. Edwin May, Mr. and Cameron, Miss Amanda Caskie, Dr. Mrs. Upehur, Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Blankership; Miss R. Delannett, of Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mrs. E. C. Mayo, and many others.

THE RECEPTION. After the ceremony the bridal party tore at once to the residence of the ride's parents. No. 16 west Franklin test, where Mr. and Mrs. Williams held spacious mansion was profusely ed with palms and chrysanthe-of various tints, and those men-in the above list, with others, resent. There was an orchestra dance, and a sumptuous wedding

Immediately after the ceremony the happy pair drove to Basic City and took the 11-20 A. M. train for New York and other northern cities. After visiting these they will return to Richmond and reside with Mr. E. Harvey Spence.

The groom is a member of the firm of Purcell, Ludd & Co., and is highly regarded as a young man of great worth and promise and excellent business qualification. The bride is a daughter of the late Thomas Bruce, of this place, and granddaughter of T. C. Woody, Esq., of the most popud Mrs. Williams left on the midtirsin for the North. The wedding will extend over four weeks, and thing, they will take up their resiride is the third daughter daugh-Cotonel and Mrs. Archer Ander-the is very talented, and most the leaf-tobacco trade. He is the leaf-tobacco trade. He is the leaf-tobacco trade. a Rebling, and is equally prominent in

The Curtis-Charlton Wedding. Rarely, indeed, has it fallen to the lot of Richmond to witness two such important marriages in one evening as took place last night. Scarcely more than half an hour after the Anderson-Williams muptiais had been celebrated at St. Pauls, old St. John's was the scene of a very picturesque event of social import, when Miss Hylah Curtis became the bride of Mr. John R. Charlton. The port, when Miss Hylah Curtis became the bride of Mr. John R. Charlton. The church had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Goodwin, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. J. Y. Dobbins, of East Orange, N. J., coubin of the bride, and Rev. Dr George Cooper, in the presence of a large number of friends and leiatives of both parties.

THE BRIDAL PARTY. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Williams, of Martinsville, Va.; Miss Laura Dobbins, of Hampton; Miss Irene Bossieux, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Belle Dobbins, and Miss Bessie Hancock. Miss Curtis was maid of honor. bridesmalds were blue organdle over silk, and carried bouquets of white chrysanthe-mums. The maid of honor were muslindesna over blue satin, and she carried a desma over blue satin, and she carried a bouquet of May Handy violets.

The groomsmen were Messrs, Herbert Curtis, brother of the bride; George J. Freedby, P. L. Reed, James T. Estis, William H. Sherwin, and Shepherd Webb, The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a very handsome dress of white satin, trimmed with point lace, and carried lilies of the valley. Her ornaments were diamonds. She was met at the altar by the bride-She was met at the altar by the bride with his best man, Mr. anone

THE WEDDING SUPPER

n, and many others.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Wil-lam H. Curtis, and the groom is a well-known business-man, having been with the Richmond Paper Company for a long lock to Mr. Edwin A. Peyton. The church had been exquisitely decorated with evergreens and potted plants, and gloating over all sprayed the soft light of

As the bridal party came down the aisle, the sacred walls, and, united with the impressive and beauteous scene, could not fall to thrill the hosts of friends and admirers that overflowed the building.

Dr. W. L. Wright, paster of the church, and for five years the beloved and honored paster of the bride, met them at the alter, and there, in sight of God and man.

h-blossom silk, and carried a bouquet the love and admiration in the hearts of those people among whom Miss Martin has passed her life, and given of its sweetness and beauty for their joy.

Gibbs-Perkins Nuptinls.

Last evening Miss Emma Perkins was married to Mr. J. C. Gibbs at the residence of Mr. William H. Mitchell, No was a home wedding, but withal a very

A Richmond Man Takes a Waynesboro' Bride.

WAYNESBORO', November 18.-(Special.)-Mr. Josiah Vaughan, of Richmond.

place, were married in the Presbyterian church here this morning. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion and crowded with friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The pupils of the Valley Seminary, or which the bride is a graduate, were present, as were also the Fishburn Military, School cadets and faculty.

The ushers were: Messrs, Beverly Randelsh

The ushers were: Messrs, Beverly Raid-dolph, of the Chesapeake and Ohio raidway, Richmond; Piliny Fishburn, Waynesboro'; Lyle Gully, Fisherville, and Professor Summerville, of Fishburn Military School, Mr. Norman Morton, of the School, Mr. Norman Morton, of the State Bank of Virginia, Richmond, was best man, and Miss Janet Waliace, of Waynesboro', cousin of the bride, was

The bride was attired in a handsome and stylish costume of brown cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a magnificent cluster of pink chrysanthe-mums. Miss Nettle Caldwell presided skilfully at the organ. Dr. A. R. Cocke, paster of the church, performed the cere-mony in a beautiful and impressive man-

Immediately after the ceremony the Richmond. She is one of the most popu-lar young ladies ever reared in this sec-

Mr. E. Harvey Spence, of Richmond, at-Redford-Mays.

1211 Twenty-second street, Fairmon

Six Richmond Pastorates Changed This Year. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, on north Twenty-ninth street There were about 150 invited guests. Among those present were Rev. J. Y. Dobbins, of East Orange; Mr. Richard Curtis, of Norfolk; Miss Mary Williams,

The appointments of the Methodist Conference, which appear in another column this morning, show but six changes in the churches of this city and vicinity. Rev. W. A. Laughon, of Denny-Street, is placed on the superannuate list and is succeede of Martinsville: Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Conquest, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Rev. and Mrs. George Cooper, Mrs. M. A. Herbert, Miss T. H. Starke, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Putney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rev. S. C. Hatcher, of Barton Heights surch, who, in urn is succeeded by ev. W. F. Davis, Rev. H. M. Hope leaves Clay-Street church to go to Peters burg, where he has accepted the secre-taryship of the Young Men's Christian Association. He is also made joint pastot of Washington-Street church, that city Stephen Putney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sergie, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Starke, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. Host, Mrs. Julia Small, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mr. R. L. Brown, Miss Bessie of Washington-Street church, that city and is succeeded here by Rev. E. H. Raw lings. At Asbury church Rev. W. A Christian, who goes to Centenary church Brown, Colonel William E. Cutshaw, Mr. L. H. Crenshaw, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Camp, Miss Nannie McGrader, Miss Pan-Lynchburg, is succeeded by Rev. B. M. Beckham, Rev. J. W. Latham, of Highland-Park church, goes to Willamsburg giving place here to Rev. C. H. Boggs. Rev. W. T. Williams comes to West-End nie McKenet, Mr. G. W. Taylor, Captain and Mrs. Thomas C. Cunningham, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cunningham, Miss Lillie Wells, Mr. D. D. Whitehead, Mr. L. P. Ecker, Mr. Fred. Pleasants, Mr. and Mrs. A. Von Rosenegk, Messrs. George Street, C. C. Walker, R. H. M. Harrison, and many others. Memorial church, Manchester, succeeding Rev. J. W. Stiff, who goes to Wesley church, Petersburg.

White and Gold Wedding in Lynch

Wedding at Hampton.

C. W. Bryan officiating, They go Florida for a month.

CONFERENCE CHANGES.

None of the larger churches in this city were interfered with, and the same pastors will preside at them at least an-

Assaulted and Robbed.

Yesterday, while Mr. John G. Ruffin, was passing down Reservoir street, he was brutally assaulted and robbed by The happy pair left for the North, and upon their return will take up their resi-dence at Ford's Hotel.

in unknown man. Mr. Ruffin was severely beaten about Miss Bessie Martin Weds Mr. E. A. the the face, and his nose broken, while his pockets were rifled of several dollars, all he had on his person, and he was left One of the most beautiful and impressive marriages ever witnessed in old Leigh-Street Baptist church was solemnalmost insensible. Dr. Stratton was called in and rendered the needed medical assistance. At a late hour last night, the assailant had not been arrested.

Register for the Museum,

Mr. R. A. Harrison, editor of the Hotel Register, is at the Jefferson Hotel. He at Elmira, N. Y. Mr. Harrison will pre-sent the books to the Confederate Museum to-day. The gift will, no doubt, be highly He discovered them while

Mrs. Susan Reins, an elderly lady, who lived with her son-in-law, Mr. L. B. Vaughan, at the corner of Marshall and Tenth streets, died very suddenly on yesceding the bride, came the more, Miss Kathleen Graham sister of the bride. She was lired to the brides have a more ming upon the arm of her onel Ageher Anderson, Her magnificent flavor for the manufacture of white satin and white organize magnificent flavor for the manufacture of white satin and white organize magnificent flavor for the manufacture of t

An alarm of fire was turned in about 9 o'clock last night from Box 16, corner of Pine and Main streets, and the deapprehension.

Personals and Briefs.

Miss Bessle Pace is visiting Miss Lanon Rives, at "Castle Hill." The Council Committee on Grounds and Buildings will meet at 7 o'clock this Miss Amanda Caskle, of St. Louis, is visiting Mrs. W. T. Openhimer, at her residence, on Ninth street.

Mrs. W. A. Graham, of North Carolina is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Caspar Walke, 20 west Main street,

Mrs. C. C. Roberts, of No. 119 south Fourth street, has returned home from a visit to New York and Baltimore. In the City Circuit Court yesterday judgment was rendered in the case of Charles J. Billups against Ellen Ford for

The Ladies' Matince Musicale will be held at Mrs. C. W. P. Brock's, No. 206 east Franklin street, on Friday afternoon

Mr. Harry W. Poor, night editor of the Boston Globe, and wife, who are on a two-weeks' southern tour, are in the ity for a brief stay.

Ray. Dr. Gambrell will deliver an ad-dress before the Baptist Woman's Mis-sionary Society, of the city, at Calvary church this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Grace Price, of this city, elected assistant corresponding secretary Virginia at the woman's meeting held in connection with the Baptist General Association on Tuesday. Mr. Thomas Haskins Bigger and wife returned to the city yesterday from their bridal trip to Washington and New York. They will reside with Mr. Bigger's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hay T. Thornton, No. 404 west Grace street, where they will be at home to their friends.

The Good Templars of Richmond Lodge No. 428, will hold an important and in-teresting meeting Friday night at Belvi-dere Hall. The officers of Rescue Lodge will pay a fraternal visit. A nice pro-gramme will be rendered and the members of the other lodges are cordially invited to be present.

Yesterday as Mr. John W. Starke, of this city, and Mr. A. S. Johnson, of Hanover county, were crossing the tracks of the Richmond Traction line, their horse be-came unmanageable, and but for the ef-fective efforts of the motorman in stopping a rapidly-approaching car, the accident might have reached serious proportions. Fortunately no damage, besides badly Fortunately no damage, best tearing the harness, was done.

The Republican League of One Hundred has been organized by the colored politi-cians, with the following officers: Presi-dent, John H. Smyth, ex-Minister to Liberia: Vice-President, Edward Thompson; Secretary, Charles Johnson, Jr.; Executive Committee—B. C. West, Richard Eights, Wins Bannister, Payne Ran-som, Charles Davis, Richard Washington, and J. W. Robinson.

Richmonders in New York, NEW YORK, November 18.—(Special.)-R. H. Smith, J. H. Wilkinson, St. Denis.

To Cure a Cold in One Day take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if falls to cure.

pettershulic. VA., November 18.—
(Special.)—In the handsomely-decorated parlors of the residence of her sister, Mrs. A. N. Wool, on Hinton street, at half-past 5 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Katherine Leslie Mays, of this city, was married to Mr. Lisby Redford, Jr., of

NEARING THE JURY.

The bride's gown was dahlia boucle, with trimmings of velvet and honiton lace. Miss Marie Lelia Clary, attired in white (CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

organdie and carrying a bouquet of La France roses, acted as maid of honor, with Mr. A. M. Dreelin, of Richmond, as best man. The marriage was one of the prettiest of the season. The many beautiful and dainty presents attested to the popularity of the bride. The happy pair left for the North on their bridal he was committing a lawful act in an ne was committee.

The very homicide in Virginia is presumed in law to be murder in the second degree; in order to elevate the offence to murder in the first degree, the burden of proof is upon the Commonwealth; and to reduce the offence to manslaughter the degree of proof is upon the prisance.

reduce the offence to mansaughter the burden of proof is upon the prisoner. 8. To sustain provocation as a defence to murder in the first degree, it must be shown that the prisoner at the time of the fatal blows was deprived of the power of self-control by the provocation which he had received; and in deciding the question whether this was or was not the LYNCHBURG, VA., November 18.— (Special.)—Memorial Methodist church, in this city, was the scene this afternoon of an interesting matrimonial event. It was the marriage of Miss Monimia Fair-fax, youngest daughter of Captain Ray-mond Fairfax, and Mr. William Asher Tanner, a well-known and popular young business-man. It was a white-and-gold wedding, the decorations and accessories being in white and yellow. question whether this was or was not the case, regard must be had to the character of the provocation, the nature of the act by which death was caused, to the time which elapsed between the provocation and the act which caused death, to th FORT MONROE, VA., November 18.— The marriage of Assistant-Naval-Con-structor Robert Stocker, stationed at Newport News, and Miss Susie Jones, a leading society belle, of Hampton, was celebrated this evening, at the residence of her uncle, Colonel Thomas Table Rev. offender's conduct during the interval, and to all the circumstances tending to show the state of his mind at the time he of her uncle. Colonel Thomas Tabb, Rev.

11. If the jury believe that from any hetrayer of his daughter, and at the time of his committing said act was by reason of such cause unconscious that he was committing a crime as to said Thalhimer, he is not guilty of any offence whatever.

12 The law does not require that the insanity which absolves from crime should exist for any definite period, but only that the crime at the moment when the act are

13. Although the accused be laboring un der partial insanity, caused by the fact of the betrayal of his daughter, yet if he understands the nature and character of his act and its consequences, and has a knowledge that it is wrong and criminal, and a mental power sufficient to apply that knowledge to his own case, and to know that if he does the act he will do wrong and receive punishment, and pos-sesses, withal, a will sufficient to re-strain the impulse that may arise from a diseased mind, such partial insanity is not sufficient to exempt him from responsibility to the law for his crime. The Argument of Counsel.

Commonwealth's Attorney, opened the sr-gument for the prosecution. He con-gratulated Court, jury, and counsel that the tedious trial was nearing its end, As soon as the reading of the instructhe tedious trial was nearing its end, and thanked all for the courtesy and consideration shown him. Mr. Richardon explained at the outset that he has had no acquaintance with the prisoner at the bar until after the tragedy of September 7th had been enacted, and therefore felt but the keenesi sympathy for him and ne, and drew a very nice distinction be tween revenge, which the law punished, and defending ones home or self or which the law justified. Mr. Richardson reviewed with perfect se-quence the evidence of the many witquence the evidence of the many win-nesses. He pointed out several statements in which Wimmer was contradicted as to material facts touching this case, and spoke at length of the testimony which had been adduced by the Commonwealth with reference to his visit to the store of Mr. Charles Thalhimer last May.

WAS A PAINFUL DUTY.

Mr. Richardson declared that the duty ful one. He felt keen sympathy for the family who were present in court, the father on trial for the highest crime recognized by the laws of the Commonweath, and one of the daughters in a dis-honored condition. He felt from the bot-tom of his heart his little girl's humilia-tion, but he also recalled another family-one bereft of an eldest son and brother, ne whose most loved member was sleep ing his last sleep in a near-by cemetery.

Mr. Richardson's speech was couched in chaste language, and was delivered with much force. He was attentively listen-He paid a high compliment to Mr. oy, as a citizen, and emphasized that man had a right to defend his home; his family, but had not the right to go out with revenge, admitted revenge, in his heart, and ruthlessly slay and slash pieces a mere boy. He referred briefly to the instructions oncerning instally, saying the first time nce his connection with this case that he word insanity was ever mentioned in his presence was when those instruction

SPEAKS FOR THE PRISONER.

Mr. Smith followed the prosecuting at-torney in a speech of about an hour's leight. His effort was very fine, and was punctuated with flights of oratory and many pretty poetical quotations, that were applicable to the case. He was fre-quently interrupted by nurmurs of ap-plause from the dense crowd of spectators that filled almost every inch of space the court-room, Smith began: "In appearing as counsel for the prisoner at the bar, whom counsel for the prisoner at the bar, whom it is my duty and my privilege to defend, and whose unfortunate position has deeply engaged my sympathies, I will not properly represent my client or myself if I am lacking in respect or consideration for tender feelings of a loving father, whose presence here is a duty that he feels he owes to the memory of a well-beloved son. Whilst trusting in my ways proof manner, and hoping for my own poor manner, and hoping for my client's sake, to do full justice to his cause, these considerations need not de ter me from expressing a full measure of sympathy over an occurrence which has cast a gloom upon the threshold of more than one henored family in this peaceful mmunity.

"Men die, but sorrow never dies, The crowding years divide in valu, And the wide world is knit with ties Of common brotherhood in pain."

May the lapse of years and the comfort which cometh from the sorrow is unknown"

"Adjust their lives to loss, make friend with pain, Bind all their shattered hopes and bid them bloom again.

REVIEWS THE EVIDENCE.

REVIEWS THE EVIDENCE.

Mr. Smith then started in to review the evidence and reply to Mr. Richardson's argument. He pictured Wimmer as coming to this city to locate, having been attracted by its historic fame, its acknowledged splendor, by the honor and chivalry of its men, and the beauty and virtue of its women. The speaker then addressed himself directly to the cause that led to the killing, and declared that up to that time Wimmer's home was a happy and contented one. Mr. Richardson had referred also to the fact that the defence had been for weeks searching and collecting evidence to help Wimmer. Mr. Smith said that, with the exception of Dr. Booker, their family physician, the defence had not gone beyond the door of Wimmer's home for a witness; there was no necessity to go from that spot, because Miss Wimmer had never left there, except with her mother as a companion; and she had never been in any young man's company, except at her home, and with her mother, except on one occasion, and that, during her mother's temporary absence.

Sarsaparilla Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists. $1. Hood's Pills sick Headache, 25 cents.

when Thalhimer accomplished his pur THE FOURQUREAN-PRICE CO.

THEY COULD SOON AGREE THEY COULD SOON AGRED
Just as Mr. Smith was settling down to the evidence, he glanced at the clock, and apologized to the jury for detaining them so late, (He had then been speaking less than an hour.) Judge Witt said: "Mr. Smith, you may conclude in the morning, if you prefer."

Mr. Smith said, as to that, he would rather consult the wishes of the jury than his own inclinations.

Mr. Lewis W. Burwell, of the jury, arose in his seat, and said that the jury arose in his seat, and said that the jury were exceedingly anxious to dispose of the case; that, if the arguments of the lawyers could be shortened, he thought the jury could dispose of the case in a short while. This seemed to disconcert Mr. Smith, but for a moment only He apparently interpreted Mr. Burwell's remark as favorable to his client, and said that he could take a hint as quick as anybody. The crowd seemed to share-and sympathize with Mr. Smith's be-lief.

any price.

Zic. for Baskets

Clearing Price, 48c.

and well made.

packages), for 21c.

HIS CLOSING APPEAL

Mr. Smith took up many points in the evidence, and then made an affecting appeal to the jury. "It is for you to say," the Attorney said, addressing the jury "whether my client is to walk forth from the property of the man with his show the state of his miner at the committed the act.

9. If the jury believe from the evidence that some months prior to the killing of Thalhimer the deceased had betrayed the daughter of the accused, and that the accused killed Thalhimer in the first transport of passion and without sufficient cooling time, because of the prosufficient cooling time. doubt, that the accused killed Thaihimer deliberately and upon revenge, after the fact and after sufficient cooling time, such killing would be murder.

10. If from the whole evidence the jury believes that J. E. Wimmer committed the zet, but at the time of doing so was under the influence of a diseased mind, and was really unconscious that he was committing a crime, he is not in the control of the shelteriess may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and, perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and, perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and, perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and, perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and, perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may provide; where each may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the hand of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none extend the scorn, and of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none catendary with the scorn, and of Christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and perhaps, none catendary with the scorn, and of christian charity; where she may point the finger of scorn, and of chris but as men, by all the obligations while you hold most sacred and most dear-pul-lie, private, moral, and religious-by the II. If the jury believe that from any predisposing cause the prisoner's mind was impaired, and at the time of the killing of Mr. Thalhimer he became or was mentally incapable of governing himself in reference in Mr. Thalhimer as the betrayer of his daughter, and at the time of his committing said act was by reason of such cause unconscious that he was on this court and separate to return to this court and separate to return to on this court and separate to return your own happy firesides, that there, surrounded by the sacred circle of your family, as you reflect on your verdict you may feel no heavy curse gnawing at your heart, but sustained and soothed you may read in the loving and contented faces of your wife and of your daughters their approbation of your verdict." ers their approbation of your verdict." Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this

DALLAS GREATLY EXCITED.

Murder of a Man Prominest in the County. DALLAS, TEX., November 18.—Dallas s in a turmoli of excitement. L A.

Patrick, a prominent cotton-planter and farmer of Lancaster, Dallas county, ten miles from this city, was murdered last night. Telegrams were sent here to Sheriff Cabell, and he has gone to Lan-caster with a large posse. No killing in the county could have aroused more innse feeling than has that of Mr. Patrick. The only news received in Dallas is that Patrick went from Lancaster to Bristol yesterday, and was seen returning last night with two men in his wagon. Rob-The body was found in a wagon one mil-from Lancaster.

News reached the city at 1 P. M. that the Sheriff's posse late last night had a fight with the supposed name sains in the jungle, eight miles from Lancaster. Deputy-Sheriff Ledbetter was shot through the right shoulder near the breast. Con-stable Peacock was shot through the right thigh. It is believed Ledbetter is fatally DEMOCRATIC FIGHT IN KENTUCKY Election in Three Countles Null and Void, It Is Claimed.

LEXINGTON, KY., November 18 .- The sliver Democrats intend making a fight before the State Returning Board to have the counties of Fayette, Bourbon, and Woodford, which were carried by McKinley, thrown out on account of free-turn-pike elections having been held in each. In Fayette there was also a school-board election, making three elections on the same day. This, they claim, is in plain violation of the law, and renders the election invalid in the counties in which

It is charged that the sole intention of the silver Democrats is to let out some heavy bettors, who took the Bryan end

Kentucky's Extra Session. LOUISVILLE, KY., November 18.—It is reported on good authority that Gover-nor Bradley has fully decided that the extra session of the Legislature shall be gin between January 1st and January 1st United States Senator at this session.

FIGHTING FOR CUBA.

Advices from the Son of Ex-Representative Funston.

LAWRENCE, KAN., November 18 .- A letter has been received from Frank Funston, son of ex-Representative E, H. Funston, who departed for Cuba several months ago. The young man writes that he is now an artillery captain in the in-surgent army, and tells of several hot en-gagements with the Spaniards in Puerto Principe prior to October 16th, the date of his letter. There are a number of Americans, he says, in his company.

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch." "For over 12 years I suffered from sour and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla - for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine. MRS. PETER BURBY, Leominster, Mass.

Stomach with severe pains across my shoulders,

Hood

goods are selling fairly well.

THE BIG Continuation of our Gigantic Clearing Sale to make room for in upon us day after day. PRICES CUT RIGHT and LEFT-utterly regardless of cost. It's our determination to clear stocks at Choice of 33c. Granite Tea-Pots, 50c. Granite-Dippers, 49c. Milk-Pans, Pudding-Pans, Wash-Basins, etc., Pastry-Boards, worth 50c.—21c. 31 Decorated-China Cracker-Jars, 25c. Double-Boistered Table-Knives and Forks, 5c. forks, 5c.

5c. Toothpicks, 500 in a box, 1c.
At 5c., Nicely-Decorated Jardinieres.
At 2c., 4-row Hardwood Scrubbingfor 75c. Enamelled-Iron Cooking-A-quart Retinned Saucepans, Sc. 16c. Muffin-Pans, 6 on frame, 5c. 21c. for Large-Sized, Well-Made Scrap-At $4.95, 25 Mexican-Onyx Tables, gold-

At $2.36, Hardsome Parlor-Rockers, up-hoistered in silk tapestries and silk plush, regularly 36. American Onyx Lamp, sold all over at $5.50, at $2.24.

Plated Napkin-Rings, worth 75c.
Elegant Hand-Painted China Cuspadores, worth 45c., for 15c. each.
Granite Saucepans, value 55c.; to-day, You must have Gas-Globes. now, as we have on sale our 35 and Real-Thin Berry or Fruit-Sancers, fancy painted decorations, value 15c.; to-day, 3c. 25c. Globes at 10c.

15c.; to-day, 3c.

A great sale of Perforated Toilet-Paper, worth 7c. roil, for 2c.
100 Willow Clothes-Baskets; Clearing Price, 25c.

Largest-Size Granite Tea-Kettles; State 10c.

In our Dinnerware Department, the Best Bargains ever offered in Dinnersets, 100 pleces, blue decorations, in very striking pattern and very pretty shape, value $2; special, 100-piece set, $13.45. Price, 25c. Largest-Size Granite Tea-Kettles;

31 dozen Granite Wash-Basins, 7c. Family-Size Bread-Boxes, nicely madewe mean the best-Clearing Sale Price

Mincing-Knives, solid-steel blade, hard-wood handle; Clearing Sale, 1c. Bread-Boards, extra-large size, smooth,

The above are only a few of the MONEY-SAVING CHANCES-typical of hundreds of others all over the floor. Every department offers tempting inducements.

thousands of dollars' stock of Holiday Goods which keep pouring

The Fourqurean-Price Co.

FORMALLY OPENED.

Armstrong-Slater Memorial Trade School at Hampton.

Toilet-Paper, 4 packages, guar-anteed 1,000 sheets (regular 10c.

for the Best Quadruple Silver-

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., November 18 .- (Special.)-The formal opening to-day of the Armstrong-Slater Memorial Trade School, at the Hampton Normal and In-

At 2 o'clock the formal exercises commenced in the institute chapel. Rev. H.
B. Frissell, D. D., the principal, presided.
Addresses were made by Professor Frissell; Dr. Gillman, president of John Hopkins University, at Baltimore, and president of the John F. Slater fund Board of Trustees: Hen. Morris K. Jessup of of Trustees; Hon. Morris K. Jessup, of New York, a member of that board, and New York, a member of that board, and Professor Booker T. Washington, principal of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. The programme was enlivened by the rendition of old plantation melodies by the finely-trained institute choir.

The battalion formed on the green at the conclusion of the exercises, and marched to the new trade school, followed by the visitors and the female students, Here more speeches were made by Mr.

ed by the visitors and the female students.
Here more speeches were made by Mr.
Robert C. Ogder, of Philadeiphia, president of the Board of Trustees of the institute, and Dr. Curry, chairman of the Educational Committee of the Slater-Fund Board. An agricultural and industrial conference was held to-night in the Fund Board. An agricultural and industrial conference was held to-night in the symmasium, where speeches were delivered by Major Henry E. Alvord, Department of Agriculture, at Washington; Rev. H. L. Wayland, D. D. editor of the Philadelphia Examiner; Hon. John E. Massie, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Virginia; Captain C. E. Vawier, of the Albemarle Miller School, and Booker T. Washington, of Tuskegee. The exercises will be concluded to-morrow.

The Armstrong-Slater School is the first to be erected of a plant of three industrial training schools, the other two being designed to afford practical instruction in agriculture and domestic science, the n agriculture and domestic science, latter for young negro and Indian women.

CASTILLO ON CUBAN SITUATION. Attitude of United States-No Concession to Rebels, PARIS, November 18 .- Le Journal report of an interview with Senor Canovas del Castillo, Prime Minister of Spain, in which he says that the relations between Spain and the United States are excellent. The United States Government, the Premier says, has always observed a correct attitude, and he does not believe it will change its policy for the sake of the Cuban negroes and adventurers. If, however, the United States Government should do so, Spain would cause her rights to be respected. While he is in power, Senor Canovas is reported as saying, he will make no concession to rebels, nor will he show the weakness of drawing back before anybody. Spain, the Premier added, regards the Cuban question as one of internal politics. ter of Spain, in which he says that the ARMENIAN BISHOP TO DIE. Sentenced by Turkish Tribunal-

Another Bishop Arrested. CONSTANTINOPLE, November 18.-The Turkish special tribunal has sentenced the Armenian Bishop at Hassekein to death. He was condemned because, during the late riots in Constanticause, during the late riots in Constanti-Lople a loaded revolver was found in his house. The Bishop was absent from home at the time, and upon this ground an appeal was taken against the judgment of the special tribunal, but the Court of Appeals confirmed the sentence imposed by the tribunal.

The Armenian Bishop at Bitlis and a number of Mussulmans have been ar-number of Mussulmans have been ar-rested in Constantinople for plotting against the Sultan.

Engagements in Cuba. HABANA. November 18.—Colonel Mon-cado has had an engagement with com-bined parties of rebels, who were found strongly entrenched in the Grillo Hills, in the province of Habana. The enemy was dislodged and dispersed, the Spanish column advancing, and capturing the po-sition of the rebels, under a heavy fire. The Spanish troops had six privates killed, and a captain, 2 lieutenants, and 38 privates wounded. The rebels left 7 dead on the field, and carried off many General Gonzales Munoz has had two engagements with robel parties between Sitio Hondo and San Cristobal, in Pinar del Rio Province. The Spanish had a pri-vate and 1 captain killed, and 27 privates wounded. The The insurgents had 12 men unded.

The Castles Embark for America.

London, November 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Castle, of San Francisco, left Waterloo Station at 10 o'clock this morning for Southampton, where they will embark on board the steamer Havel for New York. A few friends gathered at the station to bid them farewell. Both appeared to be in a happy frame of mind. appeared to be in a happy frame of mind.
Mrs. Castle was perfectly composed, and appeared to be in good health. The Castles were booked under the name of "Michaels."

w York Dry-Goods Market. NEW YORK, November 18.—In the dry-goods market to-day there has been a fair attendance of buyers on the spot, but their operations have not been marked by any greater degree of spirit than before. Woollen goods in men's wear are dull and unchanged. Dress goods are salling fairly well.

Orders for printing sent to the Dispatch Company will be given prompt attention, and the style of work and prices will be sure to please you.

GEN. LEE TALKS OF WEYLER.

The Spanish Commander May Return Without Discredit. (Washington Correspondence Philadelphia Record-17th.)

Consul-General Fitzhugh Lee saw the President this afternoon for the first dustrial Institute, was a notable event. time since he returned to this city, on Saturday. He only spent a few moments with the President, who had an engagement to go driving with Mrs. Cleveland at 4 o'clock, just about the time General Lee called. The General went to Frode ricksburg to-night to visit his mother, but will come back to Washington at the end of this week. Asked when he pected to return to Habana, he said: have no idea."

In conversation to-day, General Lee appeared to attach considerable signifi-cance to the report cabled from Habana that General Weyler was expected back in Habana this week, and he was dis-posed to think the report accurate. But the most searching inquiry falled to de-velop in just what direction the significance lay; whether it might be taken as a positive indication that Weyler's return from the field meant the failure of his campaign or its partial success. Whether General Lee has given any more definite opinion to the President or Secretary Olney cannot be wrant from him by his closest personal ac-quaintances. It is, however, plausibly quantances. It is, nowever, plausibly explained that General Martinez Campos was severely criticised for keeping the field during the ten years' war, and that General Weyler could advantageously resume his headquarters at Habana if he had passed with large bodies of troops through the insurgents' stronghold, and had been unable to force a lattice.

had been unable to force a battle.

In that event, he would be compelled to divide bis forces into numerous small contingents to operate against the smaller warfare his immediate presence on the field would be not only superfluous, but unwise. In the field, under such circum-stances. he could not keep in communication with all his forces. Habana he could telegraphically his troops throughout the Island.

Fitz Lee and the Cabinet.

question of a Cabinet place for General Fitzhugh Lee under the McKinley Administration, our excellent contemporary, the Fredericksburg Free Lance, can hardly speak with the authority or approval of that gallant soldier and patriotic citizon. General Lee is not a Republican; he a Democrat The American people have is a Democrat. The American people have elected a Republican candidate for the presidency, and declared in unmistakable terms that they want a Republican government. Upon what conceivable grounds could General Fitz Lee, a lifelong and devoted Democrat, expect or accept a port-folio in Mr. McKinley's Cabinet? The Lance insists that General Lee is a sound-money Democrat—what of that? Did General Lee formally reneunce his party? Did he go over into the camp of the Republicans and battle against his former friends? Did he even consider such a policy for so much as a single moment? We have not heard of it. But suppose he had done all these things-what then? What do the Bolters repre-sent, anyhow? What influence do they exert; of what value is their support Why should Mr. McKinley go outside of his party in search of Cabinet officers, merely to reward an apostacy that profited him nothing, and for which, deep down in his manly heart, he must feel only pity and contempt?

only pity and contempt?

We find no sort of substance in the Lance's proposition. We do not believe in the first place, that General Fitzhugh Lee has made the smallest appeal to Mr. McKinley's gratitude. We do not believe that he has deserted and denounced his party or that, even if he had, he would expect to be rewarded for it. We feel quite sure that General Lee does not relish this freedom with his honored name in such a controversy. in such a controversy Assignment in Lynchburg.

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—R. L. Hurt & Co., merchants of Rivermont, a suburb of Lynchburg, have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, conveying their stock and accounts due to C. M. Roberts, trustee. The liabilities do not exceed $1.000 liabilities do not exceed $1,000. . MARRIAGES. PERKINS-GIBBS .- Married, at the residence of Mr. William H. Mitchell, 1711 Twenty-second street, Fairmount, Miss EMMA PERKINS to Mr. J. C. GIBBS, second street, Fairmount, Miss PERKINS to Mr. J. C. GIBBS, Richmond. Rev. Mr. Beadles both of officiated. DEATHS. REINS.—Died, after a brief illness, November 17, 1896, at the residence of her son-in-law, L. B. Vaughan, Mrs. SUSAN WARD REINS, wife of Richard Reins, and sister of the late Rebert D. Ward, in the 78th year of her age, "In my Father's house are many manistens."

Funeral from her late reside east Marshall street, at 3:30 P. THURSDAY, November 19th.

SULLIVAN,-Died, yesterday m Miss GENEVIEVE SULLIVAN, James Louis Sullivan.
Funeral at St. Peter's Cathedra TO-DAY at 3 P. M. Friends and abquaints ances respectfully invited.

WARD.—Died, on November 18th, at No. 705 east Franklin street, OPHELIA ANN WARD (colored); for many years a faithful and valued servant in the family of the late Robert A. Mayo.

Funeral from Second Baptist church (colered), TO-DAY (Thursday) at a colored.